Councillor GoltsmanMOTION:

That Council:

1. Notes that the Federal Government is considering locking down suburbs to control the spread of coronavirus.
2. Adopts an abundance of caution approach to its future decisions and actions in relation to keeping our community safe from the coronavirus outbreak.
3. Immediately closes all beaches and beach parks within the municipality, including Bondi Beach, Bronte Beach and Tamarama Beach, until measures can be put in place that allow limited access while physical distancing is observed, and this involves consultation with the NSW Police and NSW Health authorities.
4. Immediately instigates an information campaign on the coronavirus outbreak and what measures Council is undertaking including:
  - (a) Social media campaign.
  - (b) Signage across the local government area.
  - (c) Letterbox-drop the entire municipality.
  - (d) Alerts and updates to residents via applicable phone apps.
5. Requests the State and Federal Governments and their agencies to provide any assistance to Council to control the spread of coronavirus in the municipality.
